Notwithstanding the foregoing, no indemnification is available under the limited liability company agreement of any of the LLCs in respect of any such claim adjudged to be primarily the result of bad faith, willful misconduct or fraud of an indemnifiable person. Any act or omission by an indemnifiable person done in reliance upon the opinion of independent legal counsel or public accountants selected with reasonable care shall not constitute bad faith, willful misconduct, or fraud on the part of such indemnifiable person. Payment of these indemnification obligations shall be made from the assets of the applicable LLC and the members shall not be personally liable to an indemnifiable person for payment of indemnification.

Corporations

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law authorizes a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by the person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if the person acted in good faith and in a manner the person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the person’s conduct was unlawful. In addition, the Delaware General Corporation Law does not permit indemnification in any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses, which such court shall deem proper. To the extent that a present or former director or officer of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter, such person shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonably incurred by such person. Indemnity is mandatory to the extent a claim, issue or matter has been successfully defended. The Delaware General Corporation Law also allows a corporation to provide for the elimination or limitation of the personal liability of a director or officer to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer, provided that such provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of:

- (i) a director or officer for any breach of the director’s or officer’s duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders,

- (ii) a director or officer for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law,
- (iii) a director under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law,
- (iv) a director or officer for any transaction from which the director or officer derived an improper personal benefit, or
- (v) an officer in any action by or in the right of the corporation. These provisions will not limit the liability of directors or officers under the federal securities laws of the United States.

The bylaws of each of Charter, CCO Holdings Capital and CCO Capital (each a “corporation”) require the applicable corporation, to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, to indemnify any person who was or is made a party or is threatened to be made a party or is otherwise involved in any action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of such corporation or is or was serving at the request of such corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other entity or enterprise, in each case, against all expense, liability and loss (including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties and amounts paid in settlement) reasonably incurred or suffered by such person in connection therewith.

Charter has entered into indemnification agreements that require it to indemnify each of its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by law for any claims made against each of these persons because he or she is, was or may be deemed to be a stockholder, director, officer, employee, controlling person, agent or fiduciary of Charter or any of its subsidiaries. Charter is obligated to pay the expenses of these persons in connection with any claims that are subject to the applicable agreement.

Item 17. Undertakings

- (a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:
- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:
 - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;
 - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Filing Fee Tables" or "Calculation of Registration Fee" table, as applicable, in the effective registration statement; and
 - (iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement; provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i), (a)(1)(ii) and (a)(1)(iii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the SEC by the registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the registration statement, or is contained in a form of prospectus filed pursuant to Rule 424(b) that is part of the registration statement.

 - (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof;
 - (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering; and
 - (4) That, for the purpose of determining liability under the Securities Act to any purchaser:
 - (i) Each prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(3) shall be deemed to be part of the registration statement as of the date the filed prospectus was deemed part of and included in the registration statement; and
 - (ii) Each prospectus required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(2), (b)(5) or (b)(7) as part of a registration statement in reliance on Rule 430B relating to an offering made pursuant to Rule 415(a)(1)(i), (vii) or (x) for the purpose of providing the information required by section 10(a) of the Securities Act shall be deemed to be part of and included in the registration statement as of the earlier of the date such form of prospectus is first used after effectiveness or the date of the first contract of sale of securities in the offering described in the prospectus. As provided in Rule 430B, for liability purposes of the issuer and any person that is at that date an underwriter, such date shall be deemed to be a new effective date of the registration statement relating to the securities in the registration statement to which that prospectus relates, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof. Provided, however, that no statement made in a registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement or made in a document incorporated or deemed incorporated by reference into the registration statement or prospectus that is part of the registration statement will, as to a purchaser with a time of contract of sale prior to such effective date, supersede or modify any statement that was made in the registration statement or prospectus that was part of the registration statement or made in any such document immediately prior to such effective date.

- (5) That, for the purpose of determining liability of the registrant under the Securities Act to any purchaser in the initial distribution of the securities: in a primary offering of securities of the undersigned registrant pursuant to this registration statement, regardless of the underwriting method used to sell the securities to the purchaser, if the securities are offered or sold to such purchaser by means of any of the following communications, the undersigned registrant will be a seller to the purchaser and will be considered to offer or sell such securities to such purchaser:
 - (i) Any preliminary prospectus or prospectus of the undersigned registrant relating to the offering required to be filed pursuant to Rule 424;
 - (ii) Any free writing prospectus relating to the offering prepared by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant or used or referred to by the undersigned registrant;
 - (iii) The portion of any other free writing prospectus relating to the offering containing material information about the undersigned registrant or its securities provided by or on behalf of the undersigned registrant; and
 - (iv) Any other communication that is an offer in the offering made by the undersigned registrant to the purchaser.
- (b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers, and controlling persons of the registrants pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrants have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrants of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer, or controlling person of the registrants in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrants will, unless in the opinion of their counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by them is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are issuing this opinion letter in our capacity as special legal counsel to Charter Communications, Inc., a Delaware corporation, Charter Communications Operating, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“CCO”), Charter Communications Operating Capital Corp., a Delaware corporation (“CCO Capital”) and, together with CCO, the “Issuers”), and each of the entities listed on Exhibit A hereto (the “Guarantors” and, together with the Issuers, the “Registrants”), in connection with the proposed registration by the Registrants under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), on a Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR, and the documents incorporated by reference therein, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on July 27, 2026 (as such registration statement is amended or supplemented, the “Registration Statement”) for the offer and sale from time to time pursuant to Rule 415 under the Act of one or more series of debt securities (the “Securities”). The Securities may be issued by the Issuers in connection with an offering or offerings from time to time pursuant to the Registration Statement and will be offered on terms set forth in the Registration Statement and in the prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (the “Prospectus”) and in amounts, at prices and on other terms to be determined by the Issuers at the time of offering and to be set forth in an amendment or amendments to the Registration Statement and the Prospectus and in one or more supplements to the Prospectus (each, a “Prospectus Supplement”).

You have advised us that the Securities will be issued under an indenture, dated as of July 23, 2015, by and among the Issuers, CCO Safari II, LLC, and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (in such capacity, the “Trustee”) and as collateral agent (as amended and supplemented through the date hereof, and as further amended and supplemented from time to time, the “Indenture”) and guaranteed (the “Guarantees”) by the applicable Guarantors.

The companies listed on Exhibit A hereto under the headings “Delaware Guarantors” are collectively referred to herein as the “Delaware Guarantors.” The companies listed on Exhibit A hereto under the heading “Other Guarantors” are collectively referred to herein as the “Other Guarantors.”

The Registration Statement provides that the Issuers may sell the Securities registered thereby (i) through underwriters or dealers, (ii) directly to one or more other purchasers, (iii) through agents or (iv) through a combination of any of these methods. The applicable Prospectus Supplement with respect to the Securities offered will set forth the terms of the offering of such Securities, including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, the purchase price of such Securities and the proceeds to the Issuers from such sale, any underwriting discounts and other items constituting underwriters’ compensation, any initial public offering price and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers, and any bidding or auction process. If underwriters are used in an offering of Securities registered by the Registration Statement, the Registration Statement anticipates that the Issuers will sell such Securities pursuant to the terms of an underwriting agreement to be executed between the Issuers and underwriters that will be identified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. We have assumed for purposes of this letter that the terms of the Underwriting Agreement will fall within the scope of the authorization adopted by the board of directors, sole director, board of managers, managing committee, manager, sole member or other applicable governing body, as applicable, of the Issuers and the applicable Guarantors (“Board Authorization”) and will receive the approvals required by that Board Authorization. The term “Underwriting Agreement” is used in this letter to mean an underwriting agreement in the form in which it will be actually executed by the Issuers and the underwriters with respect to a particular underwritten offering of Securities registered by the Registration Statement.

In connection therewith, we have examined originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purpose of this opinion, including (i) the corporate and organizational documents of the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors, (ii) minutes and records of the corporate proceedings of the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors with respect to the Registration Statement, (iii) the Registration Statement, (iv) the Indenture (including the Guarantees) and (v) forms of the Securities. The term “Transaction Documents” is used in this letter to refer collectively to the Underwriting Agreement, the Indenture, the Securities and the Guarantees.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies and the authenticity of the originals submitted to us as copies. We have also assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of the signatures of persons signing all documents in connection with which this opinion is rendered, the authority of such persons signing on behalf of the parties thereto (other than the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors), and the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by the parties thereto (other than the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors). As to any facts material to the opinions expressed herein which we have not independently established or verified, we have relied upon statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Issuers and the Guarantors.

We have also assumed that:

- (i) the Registration Statement shall have become effective pursuant to the provisions of the Act and will remain effective and comply with all applicable laws at the time the Securities are offered or issued as contemplated the Registration Statement;
 - (ii) a Prospectus Supplement or Prospectus Supplements with respect to the Securities shall have been filed (or transmitted for filing) with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Act and any exhibits necessary under the rules and regulations of the Commission shall have been filed with the Commission in an amendment to the Registration Statement or incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement pursuant to a Current Report on Form 8-K of the Issuers filed with the Commission and will comply with all applicable laws;
 - (iii) the Securities will be issued and sold in the manner stated in the Registration Statement, and in the form and containing the terms set forth in the Registration Statement and the Indenture;
 - (iv) the Guarantees will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Other Guarantors (to the extent they are party to the Indenture);
 - (v) a definitive Underwriting Agreement will have been duly authorized and validly executed and delivered by the Issuers, the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) and the other parties thereto;
 - (vi) the terms of the Indenture are or will have been consistent with the description of the terms of such agreement set forth in the Registration Statement and in the Prospectus Supplement or Prospectus Supplements;
 - (vii) appropriate corporate action shall have been taken to authorize the issuance and sale of, and such authorization will not have been modified or rescinded;
 - (viii) the issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities, the terms of the Securities and compliance by each of Issuers and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party to the Indenture) with the terms of the Securities will not violate any applicable law, any agreement or instrument then binding upon the Issuers or such Guarantors or any restriction imposed by any court or governmental body having jurisdiction over the Issuers or such Guarantors;

KIRKLAND & ELLIS LLP

- (ix) any legally required consents, approvals, authorizations and other orders of the Commission and any other regulatory authorities shall have been obtained; and
- (x) there will not have occurred any change in law affecting the validity, legally binding character or enforceability of the Securities.

Based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations identified in this opinion, we are of the opinion that when (i) the Securities have been duly executed, delivered and paid for in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement, (ii) the Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuers, the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) and the Trustee, (iii) the Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended and (iv) the Securities have been fully authenticated by the Trustee, the Securities will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Issuers and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto), enforceable against the Issuers and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) in accordance with their terms.

Each opinion in this letter that any particular contract constitutes a valid and binding agreement or is enforceable in accordance with its terms (each, an “enforceability opinion”) is subject to: (i) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and other similar laws and judicially developed doctrines in this area such as substantive consolidation and equitable subordination; (ii) the effect of general principles of equity; and (iii) other commonly recognized statutory and judicial constraints on enforceability including statutes of limitations. “General principles of equity” include but are not limited to: (A) principles limiting the availability of specific performance and injunctive relief; (B) principles which limit the availability of a remedy under certain circumstances where another remedy has been elected; (C) principles requiring reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing in the performance and enforcement of an agreement by the party seeking enforcement; (D) principles which may permit a party to cure a material failure to perform its obligations; and (E) principles affording equitable defenses such as waiver, laches and estoppel. It is possible that terms in a particular contract covered by our enforceability opinion may not prove enforceable for reasons other than those explicitly cited in this letter should an actual enforcement action be brought, but (subject to all the exceptions, qualifications, exclusions and other limitations contained in this letter) such unenforceability would not in our opinion prevent the party entitled to enforce that contract from realizing the principal benefits purported to be provided to that party by the terms in that contract which are covered by our enforceability opinion. In addition, none of the opinions or other advice contained in this letter covers or otherwise addresses any of the following types of provisions (or the enforceability thereof) which may be contained in the Transaction Documents: (i) provisions mandating contribution towards judgments or settlements among various parties; (ii) waivers of benefits and rights to the extent they cannot be waived under applicable law; (iii) provisions providing for liquidated damages, late charges and prepayment charges, in each case if deemed to constitute penalties; (iv) provisions which might require indemnification or contribution in violation of general principles of equity or public policy, including, without limitation, indemnification or contribution obligations which arise out of the failure to comply with applicable state or federal securities laws, rules or regulations; or (v) requirements in the Transaction Documents specifying that provisions thereof may only be waived in writing (these provisions may not be valid, binding or enforceable to the extent that an oral agreement or an implied agreement by trade practice or course of conduct has been created modifying any provision of such documents).

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are issuing this opinion letter in our capacity as special legal counsel to Charter Communications, Inc., a Delaware corporation, CCO Holdings Capital Corp., a Delaware corporation (“CCOH Capital”), CCO Holdings, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“CCO Holdings” and, together with CCOH Capital, the “Issuers”), and each of the entities listed on Exhibit A hereto (the “Guarantors” and, together with the Issuers, the “Registrants”), in connection with the proposed registration by the Registrants under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), on a Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR, and the documents incorporated by reference therein, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on July 27, 2026 (as such registration statement is amended or supplemented, the “Registration Statement”) for the offer and sale from time to time pursuant to Rule 415 under the Act of one or more series of debt securities (the “Securities”). The Securities may be issued by the Issuers in connection with an offering or offerings from time to time pursuant to the Registration Statement and will be offered on terms set forth in the Registration Statement and in the prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (the “Prospectus”) and in amounts, at prices and on other terms to be determined by the Issuers at the time of offering and to be set forth in an amendment or amendments to the Registration Statement and the Prospectus and in one or more supplements to the Prospectus (each, a “Prospectus Supplement”).

You have advised us that the Securities will be issued under an indenture, dated as of May 23, 2019, by and among the Issuers and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the “Trustee”) (as amended and supplemented through the date hereof, and as further amended and supplemented from time to time, the “Indenture”) and guaranteed (the “Guarantees”) by the applicable Guarantors.

The companies listed on Exhibit A hereto under the headings “Delaware Guarantors” are collectively referred to herein as the “Delaware Guarantors.” The companies listed on Exhibit A hereto under the heading “Other Guarantors” are collectively referred to herein as the “Other Guarantors.”

The Registration Statement provides that the Issuers may sell the Securities registered thereby (i) through underwriters or dealers, (ii) directly to one or more other purchasers, (iii) through agents or (iv) through a combination of any of these methods. The applicable Prospectus Supplement with respect to the Securities offered will set forth the terms of the offering of such Securities, including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, the purchase price of such Securities and the proceeds to the Issuers from such sale, any underwriting discounts and other items constituting underwriters’ compensation, any initial public offering price and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers, and any bidding or auction process. If underwriters are used in an offering of Securities registered by the Registration Statement, the Registration Statement anticipates that the Issuers will sell such Securities pursuant to the terms of an underwriting agreement to be executed between the Issuers and underwriters that will be identified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. We have assumed for purposes of this letter that the terms of the Underwriting Agreement will fall within the scope of the authorization adopted by the board of directors, sole director, board of managers, managing committee, manager, sole member or other applicable governing body, as applicable, of the Issuers and the applicable Guarantors (“Board Authorization”) and will receive the approvals required by that Board Authorization. The term “Underwriting Agreement” is used in this letter to mean an underwriting agreement in the form in which it will be actually executed by the Issuers and the underwriters with respect to a particular underwritten offering of Securities registered by the Registration Statement.

In connection therewith, we have examined originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purpose of this opinion, including (i) the corporate and organizational documents of the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors, (ii) minutes and records of the corporate proceedings of the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors with respect to the Registration Statement, (iii) the Registration Statement, (iv) the Indenture (including the Guarantees) and (v) forms of the Securities. The term “Transaction Documents” is used in this letter to refer collectively to the Underwriting Agreement, the Indenture, the Securities and the Guarantees.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies and the authenticity of the originals submitted to us as copies. We have also assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of the signatures of persons signing all documents in connection with which this opinion is rendered, the authority of such persons signing on behalf of the parties thereto (other than the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors), and the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by the parties thereto (other than the Issuers and the Delaware Guarantors). As to any facts material to the opinions expressed herein which we have not independently established or verified, we have relied upon statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Issuers and the Guarantors.

We have also assumed that:

- (i) the Registration Statement shall have become effective pursuant to the provisions of the Act and will remain effective and comply with all applicable laws at the time the Securities are offered or issued as contemplated the Registration Statement;
 - (ii) a Prospectus Supplement or Prospectus Supplements with respect to the Securities shall have been filed (or transmitted for filing) with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Act and any exhibits necessary under the rules and regulations of the Commission shall have been filed with the Commission in an amendment to the Registration Statement or incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement pursuant to a Current Report on Form 8-K of the Issuers filed with the Commission and will comply with all applicable laws,
 - (iii) the Securities will be issued and sold in the manner stated in the Registration Statement, and in the form and containing the terms set forth in the Registration Statement and the Indenture;
 - (iv) the Guarantees will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Other Guarantors (to the extent they are party to the Indenture);
 - (v) a definitive Underwriting Agreement will have been duly authorized and validly executed and delivered by the Issuers, the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) and the other parties thereto;
 - (vi) the terms of the Indenture are or will have been consistent with the description of the terms of such agreement set forth in the Registration Statement and in the Prospectus Supplement or Prospectus Supplements;
 - (vii) appropriate corporate action shall have been taken to authorize the issuance and sale of, and such authorization will not have been modified or rescinded;
 - (viii) the issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities, the terms of the Securities and compliance by each of Issuers and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party to the Indenture) with the terms of the Securities will not violate any applicable law, any agreement or instrument then binding upon the Issuers or such Guarantors or any restriction imposed by any court or governmental body having jurisdiction over the Issuers or such Guarantors;

- (ix) any legally required consents, approvals, authorizations and other orders of the Commission and any other regulatory authorities shall have been obtained; and
- (x) there will not have occurred any change in law affecting the validity, legally binding character or enforceability of the Securities.

Based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations identified in this opinion, we are of the opinion that when (i) the Securities have been duly executed, delivered and paid for in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement, (ii) the Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuers, the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) and the Trustee, (iii) the Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended and (iv) the Securities have been fully authenticated by the Trustee, the Securities will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Issuers and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto), enforceable against the Issuers and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) in accordance with their terms.

Each opinion in this letter that any particular contract constitutes a valid and binding agreement or is enforceable in accordance with its terms (each, an “enforceability opinion”) is subject to: (i) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and other similar laws and judicially developed doctrines in this area such as substantive consolidation and equitable subordination; (ii) the effect of general principles of equity; and (iii) other commonly recognized statutory and judicial constraints on enforceability including statutes of limitations. “General principles of equity” include but are not limited to: (A) principles limiting the availability of specific performance and injunctive relief; (B) principles which limit the availability of a remedy under certain circumstances where another remedy has been elected; (C) principles requiring reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing in the performance and enforcement of an agreement by the party seeking enforcement; (D) principles which may permit a party to cure a material failure to perform its obligations; and (E) principles affording equitable defenses such as waiver, laches and estoppel. It is possible that terms in a particular contract covered by our enforceability opinion may not prove enforceable for reasons other than those explicitly cited in this letter should an actual enforcement action be brought, but (subject to all the exceptions, qualifications, exclusions and other limitations contained in this letter) such unenforceability would not in our opinion prevent the party entitled to enforce that contract from realizing the principal benefits purported to be provided to that party by the terms in that contract which are covered by our enforceability opinion. In addition, none of the opinions or other advice contained in this letter covers or otherwise addresses any of the following types of provisions (or the enforceability thereof) which may be contained in the Transaction Documents: (i) provisions mandating contribution towards judgments or settlements among various parties; (ii) waivers of benefits and rights to the extent they cannot be waived under applicable law; (iii) provisions providing for liquidated damages, late charges and prepayment charges, in each case if deemed to constitute penalties; (iv) provisions which might require indemnification or contribution in violation of general principles of equity or public policy, including, without limitation, indemnification or contribution obligations which arise out of the failure to comply with applicable state or federal securities laws, rules or regulations; or (v) requirements in the Transaction Documents specifying that provisions thereof may only be waived in writing (these provisions may not be valid, binding or enforceable to the extent that an oral agreement or an implied agreement by trade practice or course of conduct has been created modifying any provision of such documents).

We do not find it necessary for the purposes of this opinion, and accordingly we do not purport to cover herein, the application of the securities or “Blue Sky” laws of the various states to the issuance of the Securities.

This opinion is limited to the specific issues addressed herein, and no opinion may be inferred or implied beyond that expressly stated herein. This opinion speaks only as of the date that the Registration Statement becomes effective under the Act, and we assume no obligation to revise or supplement this opinion should the present laws of the State of New York, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act be changed by legislative action, judicial decision or otherwise after the date hereof.

This opinion is furnished to you in connection with the filing of the Registration Statement and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise relied upon for any other purposes.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 5.2 to the Registration Statement. We also consent to the reference to our firm under the heading “Legal Matters” in the Registration Statement. Re: Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We are issuing this opinion letter in our capacity as special legal counsel to Charter Communications, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the “Issuer”), and each of the entities listed on Exhibit A hereto (the “Guarantors” and, together with the Issuer, the “Registrants”), in connection with the proposed registration by the Registrants under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Act”), on a Registration Statement on Form S-3ASR, and the documents incorporated by reference therein, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) on July 27, 2026 (as such registration statement is amended or supplemented, the “Registration Statement”) for the offer and sale from time to time pursuant to Rule 415 under the Act of one or more series of debt securities (the “Securities”). The Securities may be issued by the Issuer in connection with an offering or offerings from time to time pursuant to the Registration Statement and will be offered on terms set forth in the Registration Statement and in the prospectus contained in the Registration Statement (the “Prospectus”) and in amounts, at prices and on other terms to be determined by the Issuer at the time of offering and to be set forth in an amendment or amendments to the Registration Statement and the Prospectus and in one or more supplements to the Prospectus (each, a “Prospectus Supplement”).

You have advised us that the Securities are to be issued by the Issuer pursuant to one or more indentures and supplemental indentures (the “Indentures”) to be entered into by the Issuer, the guarantors party thereto from time to time and The Bank of New York Mellon Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the “Trustee”) and guaranteed (the “Guarantees”) by the applicable Guarantors. The Indentures will be executed and filed in an amendment to the Registration Statement (or incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement) prior to the offering of any Securities.

The companies listed on Exhibit A hereto under the headings “Delaware Guarantors” are collectively referred to herein as the “Delaware Guarantors.” The companies listed on Exhibit A hereto under the heading “Other Guarantors” are collectively referred to herein as the “Other Guarantors.”

The Registration Statement provides that the Issuer may sell the Securities registered thereby (i) through underwriters or dealers, (ii) directly to one or more other purchasers, (iii) through agents or (iv) through a combination of any of these methods. The applicable Prospectus Supplement with respect to the Securities offered will set forth the terms of the offering of such Securities, including the name or names of any underwriters, dealers or agents, the purchase price of such Securities and the proceeds to the Issuer from such sale, any underwriting discounts and other items constituting underwriters' compensation, any initial public offering price and any discounts, commissions or concessions allowed or reallocated or paid to dealers, and any bidding or auction process. If underwriters are used in an offering of Securities registered by the Registration Statement, the Registration Statement anticipates that the Issuer will sell such Securities pursuant to the terms of an underwriting agreement to be executed between the Issuer and underwriters that will be identified in the applicable Prospectus Supplement. We have assumed for purposes of this letter that the terms of the Underwriting Agreement will fall within the scope of the authorization adopted by the board of directors, sole director, board of managers, managing committee, manager, sole member or other applicable governing body, as applicable, of the Issuer and the applicable Guarantors ("Board Authorization") and will receive the approvals required by that Board Authorization. The term "Underwriting Agreement" is used in this letter to mean an underwriting agreement in the form in which it will be actually executed by the Issuer and the underwriters with respect to a particular underwritten offering of Securities registered by the Registration Statement.

In connection therewith, we have examined originals, or copies certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of such documents, corporate records and other instruments as we have deemed necessary for the purpose of this opinion, including (i) the corporate and organizational documents of the Issuer and the Delaware Guarantors, (ii) minutes and records of the corporate proceedings of the Issuer and the Delaware Guarantors with respect to the Registration Statement and (iii) the Registration Statement. The term "Transaction Documents" is used in this letter to refer collectively to the Underwriting Agreement, the Indentures, the Securities and the Guarantees.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as copies and the authenticity of the originals submitted to us as copies. We have also assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of the signatures of persons signing all documents in connection with which this opinion is rendered, the authority of such persons signing on behalf of the parties thereto (other than the Issuer and the Delaware Guarantors), and the due authorization, execution and delivery of all documents by the parties thereto (other than the Issuer and the Delaware Guarantors). As to any facts material to the opinions expressed herein which we have not independently established or verified, we have relied upon statements and representations of officers and other representatives of the Issuer and the Guarantors.

We have also assumed that:

- (i) the Registration Statement shall have become effective pursuant to the provisions of the Act and will remain effective and comply with all applicable laws at the time the Securities are offered or issued as contemplated the Registration Statement;
 - (ii) a Prospectus Supplement or Prospectus Supplements with respect to the Securities shall have been filed (or transmitted for filing) with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) of the Act and any exhibits necessary under the rules and regulations of the Commission shall have been filed with the Commission in an amendment to the Registration Statement or incorporated by reference into the Registration Statement pursuant to a Current Report on Form 8-K of the Issuer filed with the Commission and will comply with all applicable laws;
 - (iii) the Securities will be issued and sold in the manner stated in the Registration Statement, and in the form and containing the terms set forth in the Registration Statement and the Indentures;
 - (iv) the Guarantees will have been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Other Guarantors (to the extent they are party to the Indentures);
 - (v) a definitive Underwriting Agreement will have been duly authorized and validly executed and delivered by the Issuer, the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) and the other parties thereto;
 - (vi) the terms of the Indentures will have been consistent with the description of the terms of such agreement set forth in the Registration Statement and in the Prospectus Supplement or Prospectus Supplements;
 - (vii) appropriate corporate action shall have been taken to authorize the issuance and sale of, and such authorization will not have been modified or rescinded;
 - (viii) the issuance, sale and delivery of the Securities, the terms of the Securities and compliance by each of Issuer and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party to the Indenture) with the terms of the Securities will not violate any applicable law, any agreement or instrument then binding upon the Issuer or such Guarantors or any restriction imposed by any court or governmental body having jurisdiction over the Issuer or such Guarantors;

- (ix) any legally required consents, approvals, authorizations and other orders of the Commission and any other regulatory authorities shall have been obtained; and
- (x) there will not have occurred any change in law affecting the validity, legally binding character or enforceability of the Securities.

Based upon and subject to the assumptions, qualifications and limitations identified in this opinion, we are of the opinion that when (i) the Securities have been duly executed, delivered and paid for in accordance with the Underwriting Agreement, (ii) the Indenture has been duly authorized, executed and delivered by the Issuer, the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) and the Trustee, (iii) the Indenture has been qualified under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended and (iv) the Securities have been fully authenticated by the Trustee, the Securities will constitute legal, valid and binding obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto), enforceable against the Issuer and the Guarantors (to the extent they are party thereto) in accordance with their terms.

Each opinion in this letter that any particular contract constitutes a valid and binding agreement or is enforceable in accordance with its terms (each, an “enforceability opinion”) is subject to: (i) the effect of bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and other similar laws and judicially developed doctrines in this area such as substantive consolidation and equitable subordination; (ii) the effect of general principles of equity; and (iii) other commonly recognized statutory and judicial constraints on enforceability including statutes of limitations. “General principles of equity” include but are not limited to: (A) principles limiting the availability of specific performance and injunctive relief; (B) principles which limit the availability of a remedy under certain circumstances where another remedy has been elected; (C) principles requiring reasonableness, good faith and fair dealing in the performance and enforcement of an agreement by the party seeking enforcement; (D) principles which may permit a party to cure a material failure to perform its obligations; and (E) principles affording equitable defenses such as waiver, laches and estoppel. It is possible that terms in a particular contract covered by our enforceability opinion may not prove enforceable for reasons other than those explicitly cited in this letter should an actual enforcement action be brought, but (subject to all the exceptions, qualifications, exclusions and other limitations contained in this letter) such unenforceability would not in our opinion prevent the party entitled to enforce that contract from realizing the principal benefits purported to be provided to that party by the terms in that contract which are covered by our enforceability opinion. In addition, none of the opinions or other advice contained in this letter covers or otherwise addresses any of the following types of provisions (or the enforceability thereof) which may be contained in the Transaction Documents: (i) provisions mandating contribution towards judgments or settlements among various parties; (ii) waivers of benefits and rights to the extent they cannot be waived under applicable law; (iii) provisions providing for liquidated damages, late charges and prepayment charges, in each case if deemed to constitute penalties; (iv) provisions which might require indemnification or contribution in violation of general principles of equity or public policy, including, without limitation, indemnification or contribution obligations which arise out of the failure to comply with applicable state or federal securities laws, rules or regulations; or (v) requirements in the Transaction Documents specifying that provisions thereof may only be waived in writing (these provisions may not be valid, binding or enforceable to the extent that an oral agreement or an implied agreement by trade practice or course of conduct has been created modifying any provision of such documents).

Our advice on every legal issue addressed in this opinion is based exclusively on the internal law of the State of New York, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.

We do not find it necessary for the purposes of this opinion, and accordingly we do not purport to cover herein, the application of the securities or “Blue Sky” laws of the various states to the issuance of the Securities.

This opinion is limited to the specific issues addressed herein, and no opinion may be inferred or implied beyond that expressly stated herein. This opinion speaks only as of the date that the Registration Statement becomes effective under the Act, and we assume no obligation to revise or supplement this opinion should the present laws of the State of New York, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act be changed by legislative action, judicial decision or otherwise after the date hereof.

This opinion is furnished to you in connection with the filing of the Registration Statement and is not to be used, circulated, quoted or otherwise relied upon for any other purposes.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 5.3 to the Registration Statement. We also consent to the reference to our firm under the heading “Legal Matters” in the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, we do not thereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Act or the rules and regulations of the Commission thereunder.

Very truly yours,
